Calmly sharing space, allotting resources,
Respecting each the other with good will;
Welcoming all to live together in peace;
A harmonious community
Fostering wellbeing.

Calmly anchored on the peaceful pond;
Sharing a time of respite, space for all;
Pausing amidst the rippled reflections;
Facing the future in mutual support;
To soar off into the unknown.

Sunlight, seemingly simple and pure;
Is, after all, merely an illusion;
Hiding a brilliant diversity of colors;
Reveals resplendent beauty after the storm;
A vision of blended community:
RAINBOW

A vast variety of shapes, sizes, and colors;
Sharing, depending: each on the other;
Only together creating enduring strength;
None alone can fulfill the task;
Simply by united cooperation;
Offering welcome, opening to all.
